

YOUR $85 AT WORK

Investing in Colusa County's Libraries

Every dollar generated by this local measure stays in Colusa County and supports public library services.

Your investment helps provide:

Books & Digital Collections

- New books
- eBooks
- Audiobooks

Children & Families

- Storytimes
- Summer Reading
- STEAM activities
- Early literacy programs

Technology

- Public computers
- Free Wi-Fi
- Low-cost Printing and copies
- Digital resources

Learning & Literacy

- Adult literacy tutoring
- Workforce development
- Online learning

Community Services

- Safe public spaces
- Community meeting rooms
- Local history resources
- Public events

Staff

- Friendly, knowledgeable staff who connect residents with information, technology, and community resources.

Local Control

- Funds remain in Colusa County.
- Funds may only be used for library purposes.
- County base funding continues.
- County remains responsible for library buildings.
- The measure supplements existing funding rather than replacing it.
- In a fiscal emergency, the County may lower its General Fund commitment to the library on a one-time basis.

Together, these provisions are intended to provide long-term stability for library services while protecting taxpayer investment.