PUBLIC NOTICE

The Bureau of Reclamation announces the continuation of public negotiations with the Sites Project Authority for an Excess Capacity Contract for the proposed Sites Reservoir Project, a new 1.5 million acre-foot offstream reservoir approximately 10 miles west of Maxwell, CA for water storage, conveyance, and service. The Excess Capacity Contract supports the reservoir project by outlining the terms and conditions to which each party must adhere regarding the conveyance of water through federal facilities.

As needed, Reclamation and the Sites Authority will also continue negotiations for the Sites Partnership Agreement, to which the Excess Capacity Contract is planned as an Exhibit.

The following negotiation session will be held at the Sites Authority’s Office, 122 Old Hwy 99W, Maxwell, CA 95955:

• October 22, 2026 – 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

To register for the virtual attendance option and for more information, please contact Jake Brannum, Repayment Specialist, CGB Regional Office, at jbrannum@usbr.gov.

The public is welcome to attend and will have the opportunity to provide comments regarding this contracting action. Participation instructions and the proposed contracts will be available at each session.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
THOMAS NEWTON CHARTER, also known as
THOMAS N. CHARTER
CASE NUMBER: PR8492

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of THOMAS NEWTON CHARTER also known as THOMAS N. CHARTER.

A Petition for Probate has been filed by: Sarah Reynolds, in the Superior Court of California, County of: Colusa. The petition for probate requests that: Sarah Reynolds be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. The petition requests authority to administer the estate under the independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A hearing on the petition will be held in the court as follows:

Date: October 27, 2026 at 9:00 a.m.
Dept: 1 Room: TBD
Address of the court: 547 Market St, Colusa, CA 95932
Colusa County Superior Court

If you object to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing, your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. If you are a creditor or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within; the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California probate Code. Other California Probate Code. Other California Statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California Law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petitioner or account as provided in Probate Code Section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form in available from the court clerk.
